

IDAHO HOUSING AND FINANCE ASSOCIATION

NOTICE TO ALL APPLICANTS

ALTERNATIVE FORMS OF COMMUNICATION

IHFA shall, upon request, provide alternative forms of communication for individuals who are visually, hearing, mentally or manually impaired. Some examples of alternative forms of communication include, but are not limited to:

- Providing a sign language interpreter
- Having material explained orally by staff
- Having a third party representative (a friend, relative or advocate) receive, interpret and explain housing materials and be present at meetings
- Providing large type documents, Braille documents, or a reader available to an applicant with a vision impairment during the application process

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION FOR APPLICANTS WITH DISABILITIES

The Idaho Housing and Finance Association (IHFA) provides low rent housing and subsidies to eligible families including families with children, elderly families, disabled families, and single people. IHFA is not permitted to discriminate against applicants on the basis of their race, religion, sex, color, national origin, age, disability, or familial status. In addition, IHFA has a legal obligation to provide reasonable accommodations to applicants if they or any family members have a disability. A reasonable accommodation is a structural change made to IHFA's Low Rent Public Housing units or common areas, or a modification of a rule, policy, procedure, or service that will assist an otherwise eligible applicant or resident with a disability to make effective use of IHFA's programs. Examples of reasonable accommodations would include, but are not limited to:

- Making alterations to an IHFA Low Rent Public Housing unit so it could be used by a family member with a wheelchair;
- Making a sign language interpreter available to an applicant with a hearing impairment during the interview or meetings with IHFA staff;
- Conducting interviews and recertification appointments by telephone or home visit;
- Providing time extensions for locating a unit when necessary because of a lack of availability of accessible units or specific challenges of the family in seeking a unit;

An applicant family that has a member with a disability must still be able to meet essential obligations of tenancy. If you or a member of your family have a disability and think you might need or want a reasonable accommodation, you may request it at any time in the application process or at any time you need an accommodation.

Once you have submitted your application, Idaho Housing and Finance Association (IHFA) will respond to you, in writing, within ten working days. This response will inform you of your preliminary eligibility and, if you are eligible, that we have entered your application into our waiting list system and the estimated waiting time you can expect before you come to the top of the waiting list.

It is your responsibility to notify our office of any address changes, in writing. If you do not respond to communications from IHFA, or your mail is returned to us, you will be removed from the waiting list and required to reapply. Any time you notify us of a change, we will respond to you, in writing, within ten (10) working days that we have received your updated information. If you do not receive a response letter from IHFA, it is your responsibility to follow up with us as to the status of your application. You should keep any letters that you receive from IHFA to verify that you submitted information.

When we reach your name on the waiting list, IHFA will send a letter asking that you contact this office within ten (10) working days. If you fail to respond within ten (10) working days you will be removed from the waiting list and required to reapply to obtain assistance.

The Supplemental form attached to the application is provided for your benefit and must be signed and returned with the application whether or not you choose to provide the contact information. It will be placed in your file and remain confidential. If you choose not to provide the contact information, please check the box at the bottom of the form and sign where indicated.

Please let us know if you have any questions about your application.

The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. The objective of providing such information is to facilitate contact by the housing provider with the person or organization identified by the tenant to assist in providing any delivery of services or special care to the tenant and assist with resolving any tenancy issues arising during the tenancy of such tenant. This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Privacy Statement: Public Law 102-550, authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to collect all the information (except the Social Security Number (SSN)) which will be used by HUD to protect disbursement data from fraudulent actions.

Dear Section 8 Applicant/Participant:

Please read the enclosed Notice entitled “Debts Owed to Public Housing Agencies and Terminations” provided to Idaho Housing and Finance Association (IHFA) by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

This Notice explains how IHFA will report to HUD’s Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system any adverse information about:

- Voluntarily or involuntarily terminated participants in the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) Program
- Information about debts owed to IHFA by participants

The Notice specifies:

- The information IHFA is required to provide to HUD and who will have access to the information
- How the information will be used
- Your rights to dispute the information and the steps that must be taken to file a dispute

All applicants and participants are required to acknowledge receipt of this notice by signing the attached form(s) on page 2. Each household member who is 18 years of age or older must sign a separate form. If you were not provided a form for each adult in your household, please call and ask for additional forms.

If you have any further questions about the enclosed Notice, please contact your local IHFA branch office at the phone number listed below.

DEBTS OWED TO PUBLIC HOUSING AGENCIES AND TERMINATIONS

Paperwork Reduction Notice: The information collection requirements contained in this notice have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3520) and assigned OMB control number 2577-0266. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, HUD may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless the collection displays a current valid OMB control number.

NOTICE TO APPLICANTS AND PARTICIPANTS OF THE FOLLOWING HUD RENTAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS:

- Public Housing (24 CFR 960)
- Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher, including the Disaster Housing Assistance Program (24 CFR 982)
- Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation (24 CFR 882)
- Project-Based Voucher (24 CFR 983)

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development maintains a national repository of debts owed to Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) or Section 8 landlords and adverse information of former participants who have voluntarily or involuntarily terminated participation in one of the above-listed HUD rental assistance programs. This information is maintained within HUD's Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system, which is used by Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) and their management agents to verify employment and income information of program participants, as well as, to reduce administrative and rental assistance payment errors. The EIV system is designed to assist PHAs and HUD in ensuring that families are eligible to participate in HUD rental assistance programs and determining the correct amount of rental assistance a family is eligible for. All PHAs are required to use this system in accordance with HUD regulations at 24 CFR 5.233.

HUD requires PHAs, which administers the above-listed rental housing programs, to report certain information at the conclusion of your participation in a HUD rental assistance program. This notice provides you with information on what information the PHA is required to provide HUD, who will have access to this information, how this information is used and your rights. PHAs are required to provide this notice to all applicants and program participants and you are required to acknowledge receipt of this notice by signing page 2. Each adult household member must sign this form.

What information about you and your tenancy does HUD collect from the PHA?

The following information is collected about each member of your household (family composition): full name, date of birth, and Social Security Number.

The following adverse information is collected once your participation in the housing program has ended, whether you voluntarily or involuntarily move out of an assisted unit:

1. Amount of any balance you owe the PHA or Section 8 landlord (up to $500,000) and explanation for balance owed (i.e. unpaid rent, retroactive rent (due to unreported income and/ or change in family composition) or other charges such as damages, utility charges, etc.); and
2. Whether or not you have entered into a repayment agreement for the amount that you owe the PHA; and
3. Whether or not you have defaulted on a repayment agreement; and
4. Whether or not the PHA has obtained a judgment against you; and
5. Whether or not you have filed for bankruptcy; and
6. The negative reason(s) for your end of participation or any negative status (i.e. abandoned unit, fraud, lease violations, criminal activity, etc.) as of the end of participation date.

Who will have access to the information collected?

This information will be available to HUD employees, PHA employees, and contractors of HUD and PHAs.

How will this information be used?

PHAs will have access to this information during the time of application for rental assistance and reexamination of family income and composition for existing participants. PHAs will be able to access this information to determine a family's suitability for initial or continued rental assistance, and avoid providing limited Federal housing assistance to families who have previously been unable to comply with HUD program requirements. If the reported information is accurate, your current rental assistance may be terminated and your future request for HUD rental assistance may be denied for a period of up to ten years from the date you moved out of an assisted unit or were terminated from a HUD rental assistance program.

How long is the debt owed and termination information maintained in EIV?

Debt owed and termination information will be maintained in EIV for a period of up to ten (10) years from the end of participation date.

What are my rights?

In accordance with the Federal Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (5 USC 552a) and HUD regulations pertaining to its implementation of the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (24 CFR Part 16), you have the following rights:

1. To have access to your records maintained by HUD.
2. To have an administrative review of HUD's initial denial of your request to have access to your records maintained by HUD.
3. To have incorrect information in your record corrected upon written request.
4. To file an appeal request of an initial adverse determination on correction or amendment of record request within 30 calendar days after the issuance of the written denial.
5. To have your record disclosed to a third party upon receipt of your written and signed request.

What do I do if I dispute the debt or termination information reported about me?

You should contact the PHA, who has reported this information about you, in writing, if you disagree with the reported information. The PHA's name, address, and telephone numbers are listed on the Debts Owed and Termination Report. You have a right to request and obtain a copy of this report from the PHA. Inform the PHA why you dispute the information and provide any documentation that supports your dispute. Disputes must be made within three years from the end of participation date. Otherwise the debt and termination information is presumed correct. Only the PHA who reported the adverse information about you can delete or correct your record.

Your filing of bankruptcy will not result in the removal of debt owed or termination information from HUD's EIV system. However, if you have included this debt in your bankruptcy filing and/or this debt has been discharged by the bankruptcy court, your record will be updated to include the bankruptcy indicator, when you provide the PHA with documentation of your bankruptcy status.

The PHA will notify you in writing of its action regarding your dispute within 30 days of receiving your written dispute. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is incorrect, the PHA will update or delete the record. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is correct, the PHA will provide an explanation as to why the information is correct.
